Say They Are Strong Enough to Prevent Gillette's Re-election as Speaker if He Doesn't Heed Their Demands

SENATOR CUMMINS RETAINED AN PRESIDENT PRO TEM

By Associated Press.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 1.—The voting strength of twenty-one, more than enough to block the re-election of speaker Gillette, will be the regular Republican organization of the House, it was claimed today by leaders of the progressive bloc. Representative Nelson, Wisconsin chairman of bloc, declared twenty-one representatives would not support the speaker unless the progressive bloc's demands for concessions of various kinds were granted. All members of the Senate Progressive Bloc abstained themselves today from the Republican Senate Conference at which party organization was speedily effected with the re-election of Senator Lodge of Massachusetts as leader. The question of the election of a president of the Senate did not come before the conference which adhered to a plan to proceed on the assumption that Senator Cummins of Iowa, retains office as president pro tem without the necessity of formal action. Progressive bloc leaders say they are making no threats but the attitude in the fight over organization will be governed in main by committee assignments.

RAID AT CLAIRFIELD
LAST WEEK SUCCESSFUL

TAZEWELL, TENN., Dec. 1.—Sheriff Greer with Deputies Charlie Davis and Whit Stone went to Clairfield last week and were joined there by John Pratt of Fonda, Ky. The net result of a day and a half's work, including one night was a big copper still in operation. Three men half a ton of whiskey and seventeen half barrels of beer just ripe for a run. The still was located upon the mountain, a mile or so from Clairfield. Sheriff Greer and Deputy Stone reached the scene of action first and found four men there at work. One of them cut a rabbit, but his identity is known.

MANY SMALL MINES CLOSE DOWN IN HARLAN FIELD

HARLAN, Dec. 1.—The mining situation in Harlan county has reached a critical condition. Not since the war has coal been as low as it is now nor has there been as many idle miners. Many of the smaller mines have closed indefinitely and most of the larger mines are only operating part time. It is reported in Harlan now that several of the mines have posted notices announcing a reduction in wages. Most of the mines affected by the reduction are located on Clover, Fork. Officials of the United Mine Workers of America have been active in Harlan for several weeks and claim to have effected a strong organization. The officials of the union recently invited the Harlan county coal operators association to meet in joint conference for the purpose of discussing a new wage scale but the operators ignored the request claiming that they never had a contract with the United Mine Workers. On the whole the mining situation presents a gloomy aspect.

Construction Pushed in All Lines In Order to Complete Avenue Before Bad Weather

With indications of fine weather for tomorrow, men in charge of the street construction work in the East End are considering working tomorrow. It is understood that a majority of the citizens of the section do not object to a continuance of the work through the Sabbath and that the case will be considered an emergency one by city officials. This case, however, had not been definitely decided upon at noon.

Work is continuing on East Cumberland and Fitzpatrick avenues. Excavations for curbing and guttering work on Fitzpatrick avenue, begun at the bridge, has been completed almost to Cumberland avenue. On account of the condition of the street and the nature of the work in progress it is necessary for motorists to detour this stretch of road.

Another crew of men is laying asphalt on East Cumberland avenue, the work having already progressed to Fifteenth street. Concrete base curbs and gutters have been laid along the street and only the laying of the asphalt is necessary to complete the work.

FLOYD BALL'S SENTENCE UP-
HELD BY COURT OF APPEALS

FRANKFORT, Dec. 1.—The five-year sentence of Floyd Ball given at London in Laurel Circuit Court this summer was upheld by the Court of Appeals in Frankfort yesterday. Ball was convicted of shooting John Hurst in the shooting affray which occurred in Pineville in May of last year. Hurst was shot five times in the back and the arm. Alva Ball, Floyd's brother, was tried last month for the same offense, but was acquitted.

TIM BALL HELD TO GRAND JURY ON LIQUOR CHARGE

Tim Ball, charged with having liquor in possession on Thursday evening, has waived preliminary examination and the case will be investigated by the grand jury.

He was tried this morning before Magistrate Charles G. Smyth on charges of selling liquor to Theodore McBea preceding his arrest and was acquitted. There was some conflict in the testimony, McBea claiming that Ball had sold him a drink of liquor for one dollar in Ball's kitchen while two Commonwealth witnesses denied knowledge of the alleged transaction.

Four Taken In Crap Game

MIDDLESBORO STORES PORTRAY FACT THROUGH WINDOWS AND WARES THAT CHRISTMAS IS NEAR

Thanksgiving is over, December is here and Christmas is in the air.

The approach of the Yuletide season is indicated in many ways but in none so forcible as by the newly decorated windows of local merchants. With dolls, toys and other articles distinctly "Christmassy" in artistic presentation at these places, the public is reminded that the greatest holiday of the year is little more than three weeks distant.

Some of the merchants have not yet taken their Thanksgiving decorations and merchandise from their windows but nearly all the others are now displaying items suitable for Christmas gifts. These include clothing, jewelry, and hardware as well as presents for juveniles.

Perhaps the largest display of toys is in Dick and Jaynes store window. A veritable toyland has been prepared in one of the windows in which dolls and their accessories and furniture are shown. In the other window there are a number of wagons, autos and other juvenile vehicles.

In the Wise Specialty shop is another excellent display of dolls and other toys for the kiddies. Yoakum's drug store and the Brown Bros. Department store have attractive lines

L. M. U. VICTORIOUS
AS SEASON ENDS

Defeat Hartssee At Football Yesterday, 7 to 6—Game Hard-Fought One

HARROGATE, Dec. 1.—The 1923 football season, and the first for Lincoln Memorial University ended yesterday in a blaze of glory for the Alcedones when they defeated the strong and hefty Hartssee eleven to the tune of 7 to 6, a muddy field being responsible for the low score. The game was postponed because of the annual Thanksgiving classic between Middlesboro and Pineville. Several hundred persons saw the game. L. M. U. has won three games and lost three games this season.

The teams were evenly matched and the Alcedones had to fight for every inch they gained. The first half ended scoreless. Hartssee played a good, clean game from start to finish. Turner was easily the star for the Alcedones and his broken field running was nothing short of spectacular. The lone touchdown was the result of a long end run by Hartssee immediately followed by a splendid executed forward pass to Long over the line. Turner kicked goal.

Practically the entire game was played on Hartssee's territory and many splendid chances for Alcedales scores were spoiled by a field made slippery by several days rain.

BURKE MAKES MODEL OF 400-DAY CLOCK INVENTION

John C. Burke, inventor of the 400 days clock, has made a model of the time-piece and has sent the plates and wheels off to be gilded. The piece had previously been sent to a factory for the model to be made but there was so much delay in the work that Mr. Burke made it. About six models of the 400 day movement have been planned though only one has been made, this being a mantle clock.

STREET FLUSHER
WILL BE HERE
THIS MONTH

Finally Arrangements Completed by City Council Last Night—Move to Mend Ashbury Avenue Passed

NUMBER OF MISOR
PETITIONS ARE GRANTED

Mayor J. H. Keeney was formally authorized by the city council last night to borrow money to pay for the street flushing apparatus which has been ordered and will be delivered this month.

H. F. Hambright, representing the H. T. Hackney wholesale house, filed a protest against the new paving on Ashbury avenue at Nineteenth street. He claimed that there is not sufficient drainage and that there are low spots on the street. After some discussion, it was decided that a catch basin should be constructed to carry off the surface water, the work to cost about $250. Herbert Kidd, representing the Humbard Construction company, promised to mend the low spots.

A report was made by the street committee that the new paving on Ashbury avenue between Nineteenth street and Fitzpatrick avenue had been inspected yesterday morning and accepted by them for the city. A report of the city engineer giving the cost of the work and the amount each abutting property owner must pay was read. Both reports were accepted by the council.

A request that some work be done on the sidewalk near the intersection of Fitzpatrick and East Cumberland avenue, made by the Middlesboro Medicine Company, was referred to the street committee.

The Moore-Togans Dry Goods company, which had recently purchased the two vacant lots on Cumberland avenue between the News stand and the Cumberland hotel, requested that the cost of the paving be charged to the firm instead of J. R. Simpson, former owner of the property. The request was granted.

The Humbard Construction company asked that police powers be granted to H. J. Moloch, night watchman for the firm, and this was granted by the council.

A report made concerning the new brick building adjoining the Washburn hotel, recently erected by Mrs. J. R. Haslett for use as a dry-cleaning plant, indicated that it is a fire hazard and in order to condemn it and order the gasoline to be removed from it was voted by the council.

Asked how long the present council would serve, Mayor Keeney stated that the new commissioners would begin their term of office on the first Monday in January.

COUNTY TAX OFFICE
BUSY ON LAST DAY

Yesterday was the last day to pay county taxes in Middlesboro and the office at the city hall was thronged with eleventh-hour payers all day. W. H. Bowman, collector, and assistant were pushed all day and remained at work until the evening. The tax books will be taken to Pineville and those who have not paid must make payments there.

Figures showing the total amount of taxes collected are not available, though Mr. Bowman stated that a considerable number of the taxes had not been paid.

SEVERAL LOADS OF SLAG
DUMPED ON DETOUR ROAD

The East End detour has been repaired this week with several loads of slag, the expense of the work being met by the one-cent gallon tax. The road was impassable because of the means of keeping it in repair until the completion of the work on East Cumberland avenue had to be taken.

PINEVILLE MECCA FOR TOURISTS

Motorists From Seven States to Meet Here March 2 for Annual Opening North-South Highway

PINEVILLE, KY., Dec. 1.—An interesting friendship tour, starting from Pineville March 2, following the assembling here of motorists from Kentucky and states to the north, has been planned for the formal opening of the best north-south highway through Kentucky. The road already has been opened to traffic and many tourists in Richmond, and arranged for our appearance before Exchange club of Richmond at noon today. The Exchange club approved the plan 100 per cent, and appointed a committee to work with the Rotary committee to get the matter into effect in Richmond at once, which will be the latter part of next week.

We have understood Winchester is also anxious to come in on the plan, and it is likely we will go up there too, soon as we can get the plan working here. These men believe it is the fair and equitable way to keep an open road while the state is building the through highway, and that this plan will develop a big profitable amount of travel while the state department is finishing up the various projects under construction.

As month is closing, and until reports may be had from wholesalers for next month, we suggest you get the motorists from the various gas stations paid into fuel as soon after the first of the month as possible, for November sales. Hope you and Mr. Campbell have big sign up and pointed at Woodbine. That sign there is highly important.

We're all much to be thankful for, and we wish you and your community all happiness, good health and increased prosperity. Our regards to our friends.

Cordially yours,
N. Buckner, and Charles O'Connor.

It is planned to have a mechanical service car accompany the motor touring party to care for the mechanical needs of the motorists as they may develop.

Kiwians and Rotarians in Lexington Began and Richmond Work to Keep Highway Open

The following Thanksgiving letter was received yesterday by A. P. Loe, org from N. Buckner and C. O'Connor, North Carolina road men, in regard to the progress in opening up the highway in Rockcastle County:

"We have presented the plan of road maintenance for the stretch in Rockcastle county leading north into Madison county, in order to keep road open and to induce travel over this through north south highway, to the Kiwanis club in Berea. They went into the matter carefully and unanimously adopted the plan at their meeting last Thursday, and we are here today to put the matter into effect. They went to Lexington, saw Kiwanis club there, and we accepted the invitation of Lexington Kiwanis club to present plan to them, which we did yesterday, at their meeting at the Lafayette hotel. An after meeting went into the matter thoroughly and unanimously voted approval and appointment of committee to put plan into effect in Lexington, for purpose of maintaining the stretch south of Berea in Rockcastle, and in Knox counties, in their help, needed. We were before the Rotary club, Richmond last night by their invitation, and presented plan to them. They unanimously appointed a committee to work with us to put plan into effect in Richmond, and arranged for our appearance before Exchange club of Richmond at noon today. Invitation Sent by Reparations Commission Shows Allies Believe American Money Essential in Restoration Plan

IN RESTRICTED INQUIRY

By Associated Press.

PARIS, Dec. 1.—Invitation to the United States to appoint members to two committees which are to investigate German finances has been forwarded to Washington on behalf of the reparations committee. It was said that the principal reason the door was left open to the American government was that European allies agreed American money would be essential to any reasonable plan for restoration of the German financial system and likely to include an advance of large sums, certainly of five hundred million.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 1.—The American government is still unwilling to participate in a restricted inquiry into German finances and has sent that word to the Reparations Commission in Paris.

THE SHEPHERDESS

I must not think of thee; and, first, yet strong,
I shun the love that lurks in all delight—
The love of thee, and in the blue heaven's height,
And in the dearest passage of a song.
Oh, just beyond the fairest thoughts that throng
This breast, the thought of thee waits hidden yet bright;
But it must never, never come in sight;
I must stop short of thee the whole day long.
But when sleep comes to close each difficult day,
When night gives pause to the long watch I keep,
And all my bonds I needs must loose apart,
Must doff my will as raiment laid away—
With the first dream that comes with the first sleep
I run, I am gath'ring to thy heart,

Christmas Gifts PERFUME COVER

A cover for your perfume bottle makes it more decorative on your dressing table. It is quite an item of smartness to have the box for the perfume bottle match the other appointments.
A bit of canary brocade ribbon covers the container in the sketch. It is applied smoothly to a cardboard box with a thin layer of liquid glue. Narrow sky-blue novelty ribbon is glued around the edges, a double line at each corner. A tiny flat ribbon is stuck in the upper front corner and a saucy sash tied around the bottles' throat.

SISTER Mary's KITCHEN

EVERYDAY DISHES
Too much sweet and rich food soon pall and plain everyday food tastes better than ever.
Boston baked beans, New England boiled dinner, sauer kraut and wieners, or salt codfish may be homely fare, but if the Christmas feasting is to be enjoyed to the utmost the wise housekeeper keeps her meals simple and wholesome during the first weeks of December.
Baked beans for Saturday night's supper, with brown bread and butter, stewed tomatoes and baked apples will make the Sunday roasts appreciated.
This is an excellent rule for baked beans.
Boston Baked Beans
Two cups navy beans, 1 pound fat salt pork, 1 small onion, 1 teaspoon salt, 2 teaspoons molasses, 1 tablespoon brown sugar, one-eighth teaspoon yeast, 1 teaspoon soda.
Pick over and wash beans. Put in hot water to cover and soak over night. In the morning drain and cover with fresh water. Add soda and bring slowly to the boiling point simmer five minutes and drain. Do not throw water into the sink. Rinse beans and return to kettle with enough fresh cold water to cover.
Bring slowly to the boiling point and simmer until the skin wrinkles when a few beans are taken up on a spoon and blown upon. Drain beans from water and rinse in cold water. Put a thin slice of the salt pork in the bottom of the bean pot. Add the onion, peeled but uncut. Add half the beans and the remaining pork. Cover pork with the rest of the beans.
Mix salt, molasses, brown sugar, pepper and mustard with 1 cup boiling water. Pour over beans in bean pot. Add enough more boiling water to cover beans. Cover pot and bake four hours in moderate oven. Uncover the last half hour of baking and bring pork to the top that it may become brown and crisp.
The onion and mustard may be omitted from this recipe.
New England boiled dinner is a fall meal. The meat is salt pork or corned beef.
New England Boiled Dinner
Four pounds corned beef, 1 head of cabbage, 4 carrots, 2 parsnips, 4 small turnips, good sized potatoes, 4 medium sized onions.
Wash meat in cold water and put on to cook in cold water. Bring slowly to the boiling point and remove scum. Simmer gently from five to seven hours. When meat is tender remove from water and keep hot. Cut cabbage in quarters and put into the stock. The turnips are pared and cut in slices. The parsnips scraped and cut in quarters and the carrots scraped and cut in dice. The potatoes and onions are left whole.
Boil vegetables until tender. Put meat in the center of a large platter and surround with the vegetables. Any of these vegetables can be omitted if not liked. Beets are sometimes boiled separately and served with a boiled dinner.

Capitol Guide 14 Years Is Devoted to Seat Government

By Associated Press.
FRANKFORT, Ky., Nov. 24.—With pride the hearts of more than 100,000 native sons, George A. Lewis, Kentucky gentleman, who has shown people of the state their "New Kentucky Home" for fourteen years now, today conducted his little groups through the state capitol with the same quiet dignity which characterized his first tour in 1909.

Mr. Lewis is getting on in years on devotion to the state's seat of government. He was born June 21, 1846, hardly a square from the old capitol. Raised in a printing office in Frankfort, he learned the printing business from printer's devil upwards and besides today, being the first custodian of the capitol building, and weathering three administrations, he is a correspondent for the Frankfort State Journal.

As custodian of the building, Mr. Lewis moved the first department—that of secretary of state—from the old to the new capitol, and later became superintendent of public printing, continuing at the same time with his guide work.

Capitol guide, Mr. Lewis, grayed, carrying himself with an unvarying simple dignity, is frankly proclaimed by those who come to visit him and know their state's home, a capitol guide indeed.

In the last year alone, Mr. Lewis showed 32,855 Kentuckians through the new state house; one of the handsomest, if not the handsomest, in the country, containing 274 rooms, and as the keen-sighted, erect, old soldier of the state points out on each tour, "something of which every Kentuckian can be proud."

The grounds, in beautiful dress of blue grass, were sketched today by the journalist guide, as the visitors as usual arrived, and then looked back down the approach, which had the appearance of an immense Persian rug spread out at the foot of the terrace steps, with streamers stretching away to terminate in tasseled effect.

Seventy Ionic columns, 22 on the front, four on either end and 20 on the back all of them monoliths, 27 feet, 10 inches tall and weighing about 18 tons each gave the first impression of dignity.

Entering the outer vestibules of red-ford limestone, the eye ranged over the interior walls of Georgia and floor of Tennessee marble. The dome a replica of that of the hotel des Invalides, in Paris, France, in the center of the dome caught the eye as it jumped upward to see what new beauty of architecture might be revealed from the eye felt, blinded by almost pure beauty only to several kinds of marble, blue and pink Tennessee and Verde Antique reflected.

Gazing about the corridors, stairway and have today's visitors realized it was good years back to have read about the "new Kentucky home," in July 1909, when Dr. Ben L. Bruner, secretary of state, moved into and formally occupied his apartments but that it was doubly good here on Nov. 25, 1923, to actually be in them, either for the first time or once again.

The mural paintings hailed the little groups, as Mr. Lewis, keys in hand, indicated on the early events in the history of Kentucky there pictured. "Boone and his companions taking their first view of the beautiful level of Kentucky" and the story of the "Treaty of Watauga."

Touring the first floor, the visitors passed such departments as the Confederate Pensions, Agriculture, Automobile, Adjutant General, and the office of the Associated Press, with its wire linking member newspapers in the state and nation constant with the center of the state government. Other offices and file rooms were viewed.

On the second floor, the executive offices well high above many, the governor's office and those of the secretary of state; auditor, treasurer and attorney general, the walls of all of which the visitors saw hung with velvet and furnished in mahogany.

The halls of legislation, the hall of the house of representatives and the senate chamber.

"The chamber of the court of appeals in Indiana handsome, perhaps more so than any other room in the United States."

Mr. Lewis gestured in conducting his guests through the chamber of the state's highest court.

And finally the dome—to which all eyes were turned but up which none ventured, for it is a dangerous task to reach the lantern on top of the dome. The view is splendid over the hills encompassing Frankfort, but the heights too dizzy for the average person, the veteran guide concluded.

M. E. CHURCH SALE SUCCESS

The pastry sale conducted by the Ladies Aid society of the First M. E. church at Oaks' store on Cumberland avenue Wednesday was a complete success. A large number of pies, cakes and candies were sold. Funds raised will be applied to church building improvements.

SCRIPTURE CALENDER CONTEST

Organization of a Scripture calendar drive is being planned by the "Gangway Boys" of the First M. E. Sunday school. A Scriptural painting, each a masterpiece of Hoffman, Riviere, Schmidt and other artists appears at the top of each page. Funds raised from the drive will be used for progressive work in the Sunday school.

INNOVATION

The West End Presbyterian Church in New York City has engaged a doorman in livery to assist members from their autos. George L. Mond, the newly-acquired doorman, upon accepting the job is said to have quoted: "It's better to be a doorman in the House of the Lord, than to dwell in the tents of wickedness."

LESSON FOR DECEMBER 2

THE POWER OF THE EARLY CHURCH

LESSON TEXT—Acts 2:1-4; 3:1-2. GOLDEN TEXT—"Whoever shall call upon the name of the Lord shall be saved."—Acts 2:21.

PRIMARY TOPIC—Peter Telling About Jesus.

JUNIOR TOPIC—Three Thousand Converted in One Day.

INTERMEDIATE AND SENIOR TOPIC—A Brave Preacher and a Great Revival.

YOUNG PEOPLE AND ADULT TOPIC—The Source of Missionary Power.

The power of the early church was the Holy Spirit. This same Spirit has been the power of the church in all ages. The watchword of God's mightiest men throughout the centuries has been, "Not by might nor by power, but by my spirit saith the Lord of Hosts." (Zech. 4:6.) The mightiest forces in the world are spiritual.

1. The Coming of the Spirit (Acts 2:1-4).

1. Time Of (v. 1). It was on the day of Pentecost. "Day of Pentecost" means the feast which was held fifty days after the wave sheaf was offered (Lev. 23:15-16). It was observed by presenting two loaves made of the new wheat (Lev. 23:17). These loaves were baked with leaven, while heaven was excluded from the Passover feast (Lev. 23:8). The reason was that the Passover feast typified Christ's sacrifice, while Pentecost represented the church, composed of Jews and Gentiles—the two loaves. Christ had no sin in Him while the men and women composing the church have sin in them.

The feast of Pentecost in a figurative sense still continues, for the body of Christ is not yet complete. Pentecost was a most fitting time for the coming of the Spirit.

2. Upon Whom the Spirit Came (v. 1; cf. 1:13-15).

The twelve and others, to the number of 120. The coming of the Spirit was not merely for the twelve but for all believers—members of the body of Christ. They were in "one place, with one accord" waiting for the fulfillment of "Father's promise" (Luke 24:49). With a group of believers thus with eyes fixed upon Christ in expectation of the fulfillment of His promises, wonderful blessings are sure to come. If the church would be with one accord in one place wonderful blessings would come still.

11. The Marks of the Spirit (vv. 2-4). These marks were external and internal.

1. External.

(1) The Sound of a Mighty Wind. There was no wind—only the sound thereof. This suggests the all-pervasive life-giving influence of the Holy Spirit.

(2) Tongues of Flame. Each of the 120 was crowned with such a tongue. The tongues show the practical purpose of the Spirit's gifts, and the fire indicates His purifying energy, purging the dross and making fit witnesses for Him.

(3) Speaking in Foreign Tongues. For these humble Galileans to thus speak caused great amazement.

2. Internal.

This is seen in the transformation wrought in the disciples. They have great courage and self-possession. Peter, who a little while before was cowering before a Jewish maid, now with lion boldness stood before the thousands of Jerusalem and a little later before the chief rulers of the city and declared that they had murdered their King.

III. The Converting Power of the Holy Spirit (Acts 2:37-42).

Many people were convicted of their sins—about three thousand repented and were baptized. This revival was real because:

1. They continued steadfast in the apostles' teaching. They did not grow cold or run after every fad that came along. This is the real test of conversion.

2. They continued in fellowship with the apostles. The surest way to grow is to keep in fellowship with Christians. Death is sure to follow the neglect of the fellowship of the brethren in Christ.

3. In using the means of grace, "In the breaking of bread," God has instituted ordinances in His house and those who are genuinely converted will avail themselves of their use.

4. In prayer the apostolic church was a praying church. The Christian life cannot be lived without prayer.

Good Deeds.

The influence of a good deed is great upon the world, but the reflex influence upon the doer is a priceless thing.—Gospel Banner.

False Prophets.

False prophets and teachers have ever been speakers of pleasing words and glorifiers of the conditions of their times. Thus only can they hope to secure popularity, ease, and the other things they are after.

Insufficient for That Day.

I have been driven many times to my knees by the overwhelming conviction that I had nowhere else to go. My own wisdom and that of all about me seemed insufficient for that day.—Lincoln.

In the geological past there was once a sea shore where there are now mountains in eastern Kentucky.

Top—Loading refugees on barges at Mytilene as a part of exchange of populations between Greece and Turkey affecting 600,000 people and supervised by American Near East Relief Workers. And, below, Dr. Nansen signing his Golden Rule Day pledge and a reproduction of the pledge card.

Dr. Fridtjof Nansen, famous scientist and arctic explorer who, in 1906, came within a few degrees of reaching the North Pole on foot, arrived in New York recently and is touring the United States as head of the International Relief Commission of the League of Nations, in an effort to raise money for the Greek refugees from Asia Minor who have found shelter in Thrace, but face starvation before their first crops can be raised. Immediately on his arrival in New York, Dr. Nansen made a plea to officials of the Near East Relief, the only American relief organization now operating in Greece, to continue and extend its work on behalf of the destitute refugees, and himself signed a pledge to observe Sunday, Dec. 2, as "International Golden Rule Day" when people all over the world are asked to practice a bit of self-denial, such as eating one meal of refugee orphan's rations, in order to make a contribution to the Near East relief work.

WHAT'S GOING ON IN THE WORLD

Dr. Stresemann is out as German chancellor, or prime minister. President Ebert had hard work to find anyone to take his job; it is so difficult because of the trouble with France. Finally Dr. Heinrich Albert agreed to have a try at it.

Stresemann asked for a vote of confidence from the Reichstag, or Parliament. That is, he asked the law makers to adopt a resolution saying, under the circumstances, they thought he was doing the best he could. The Reichstag voted the other way. That's why he quit.

Albert had charge of Germany's exhibit at the St. Louis world's fair. Later he was business adviser to the German embassy at Washington. After the World War started, but before America entered, while riding in a New York "L" train, he lost a valise containing important embassy papers. It fell into the hands of United States Secret Service men. The papers related to German war activities in this country. Their character was such as to strain relations between America and Germany, and the incident had its Black-Draught Recommended by an Arkansas Farmer Who Has Used It, When Needed, for 25 Years.

Hatfield, Ark.—Mr. G. W. Parsons, a well-known farmer on Route 1, this place, says: "I keep Black-Draught in my home all the time. It is the best all-around medicine I have ever found for the liver and for constipation. We began using it 25 or more years ago and have used it whenever needed since. I have never found any other medicine as good for constipation, and that was what I suffered with till I began using Black-Draught. Black-Draught corrected this condition, and now we use it for the liver and for indigestion—a tight and sluggish feeling after meals, for bad taste in the mouth and sour stomach.
"My wife uses it for headache and biliousness. It sets on our shelf and we don't let it get out. It has been a great help to us. I believe a great deal of sickness is caused by hurried eating and constipation, and Black-Draught, if taken right, will correct this condition.

Battle of Royal Madonnas Now Threatens Broadway

LADY DIANA MANNERS IN IMPROVISED HEAD-TO-TOE REHEARSAL THE ROLE OF MADONNA AT MAX REINHARDT'S CASTLE IN SALZBURG. LEFT, MARIA CARMEL PRINCIPessa MATCHABELLI, ENGAGED TO PLAY THE SAME ROLE.

NEW YORK, Nov. 26.—A war of Madonnas threatens Broadway. Lady Diana Manners, England's famous beauty, has been engaged to play the role of Madonna in Max Reinhardt's "The Miracle" production of "The Miracle" Principessa Matchabelli, known as "Italy's most beautiful," has been engaged for the same role. They are to alternate.

It is set forth in the program, which says, "each waives the privilege of playing the role on opening night. Ah, there's the rub! Both of these internationally famous and titled beauties are due in New York on the same night. The honor of playing on opening night is undoubtedly coveted by both. The one named for the honor will gain considerable prestige over the other.

All those who envy Herr Reinhardt's task of choosing, please say, "Aye."

toxic fruit or vegetables.

The United States Public Health Service has recently completed a series of studies in canned food poisoning at the University of Chicago bacteriological laboratories. Dr. John C. Geller, who has charge of the work, says the only sure preventive is to boil the food, jar and all, for several hours before storing it. The real time of this boiling should be from three to six hours, according to the size of the container.

The reason for high mortality in cases of canned fruit or vegetable poisoning is that medical science is as yet unable to cope with botulism (a form of poison in decaying vegetables) even after the symptoms have been diagnosed. The danger is that often there is no evidence of food spoilage. This proves that food may be highly toxic. On the other hand, food may be spoiled and yet it may not be poisonous or have any effect on the human system.

Housewives and others may avoid this dangerous infection by using the precaution which has been pointed out. It is a little more trouble, but surely the lives of your loved ones are worth a lot of time and trouble.

Boil your canned fruit and vegetable half an hour when opened for use.
